MASTER CLASSES SUMMER 2012

One of the Piccola Accademia's most important activities is to provide students and recent graduates with exceptional master classes in harpsichord performance. The combination of our instrument collection, the quality of teaching at the Piccola Accademia, superb acoustics and the quiet and relaxed nature of life in the Tuscan countryside, creates a special environment in which to study and be inspired.

This summer the Piccola Accademia will offer a program of 5 courses free of tuition fees to eligible students. However a non-refundable 100 EUR registration fee is required for each course (Except the Hantai/Sempé class which is €200).

The Summer 2012 Masterclasses will be given on:

- Italian single-manual, de Zentis, 1658
- Mietke double-manual, Kennedy, Amsterdam 1991
- Couchet double-manual, Kennedy, Castelmuzio 2008
- Italian single-manual, Kennedy, Castelmuzio 2005
- French Double-manual, Kennedy, Castelmuzio 2010

To qualify, students must be presently enrolled in a university level music study or be recently graduated. Students are requested to correspond directly with the professor and the Piccola Accademia for acceptance via the e-mail addresses provided in each of the course descriptions below.

- Application deadline: May 1
- Courses will be limited in size (max. 10 students), early registration recommended.

While getting to Montisi takes a little effort, once there student life in Montisi is easy and comfortable. Student accommodation at reasonable cost is available and should be booked directly once class acceptance is confirmed by the Piccola Accademia.
